End-User understands that searches of international background screening will be conducted through the services of a third-party independent contractor. Because of differences in foreign laws, language, and the manner in which foreign records are maintained and reported, Company cannot be either an insurer or guarantor of the accuracy of the information reported. End-User therefore releases Company and its affiliated companies, officers, agents, employees, and independent contractors from any liability whatsoever in connection with erroneous information received as a result of an international background screening report.

End-User also certifies that it will use this information only in the normal course of business to obtain lawful information relating to the holder of a commercial driver’s license or to verify information provided by an applicant or employee. End-User shall not transmit any data contained in the resulting MVR via the public internet, electronic mail or any other unsecured means.

These services as well as any administration of notices shall be deemed to be purely clerical in nature and shall be performed by Company on behalf of End-User. All employment-related decisions, including hiring, contracting and site-access decisions, are made exclusively by End-User, not by Company. End-User agrees that End-User assumes full responsibility for such decisions and agrees to indemnify and hold Company harmless from any and all claims, losses, damages, and any costs (including attorneys' fees) that may be related to or arise therefrom.

This notice shall describe with sufficient detail the nature of the default. The party receiving such notice shall have fifteen (15) days from the receipt of such notice to cure the default(s). Unless waived by party providing notice, the failure to cure the default(s) within such time period shall result in the automatic termination of this Agreement.

During the term of this Agreement, Company will be the exclusive provider to the End-User except for services not provided herein.

Force Majeure

End-User agrees that Company is not responsible for any events or circumstances beyond its control (e.g., including but not limited to war, riots, embargoes, strikes, pandemics, epidemics, and/or Acts of God) that prevent Company from meeting its obligations under this Agreement.

Waiver

The failure of either party to insist in any one or more cases upon the strict performance of any term, covenant or condition of this Agreement will not be construed as a waiver or subsequent breach of the same or any other covenant, term or condition; nor shall any delay or omission by either party to seek a remedy for any breach of this Agreement be deemed a waiver by either party of its remedies or rights with respect to such a breach.

Severability

ADDENDUM A

Access Security Requirements

The parties acknowledge they must work together to protect the privacy of consumers. The following measures are designed to reduce unauthorized access of consumer reports. In accessing consumer information, End-User agrees to the following:

1. End-User will take reasonable procedures to protect its account number and password so that only key personnel employed by your company know this sensitive information, including not posting this information anywhere in the facility. End-User agrees to request an account password change immediately if a person who knows the password leaves its company or no longer needs to have access due to a change in duties.
2. End-User agrees that system access software, whether developed by your company or purchased from a third party vendor, will have End-User's account number and password "hidden" or embedded and be known only by supervisory personnel. End-User will assign each user of its system access software a unique logon password. If such system access software is replaced by different access software and therefore no longer is in use or, alternatively, the hardware upon which such system access software resides is no longer being used or is being disposed of, or if the password has been compromised or believed to be compromised in any way, End-User will change its password immediately.
3. End-User agrees it will not discuss its account number or password by telephone with any unknown caller, even if the caller claims to be an employee of Company
4. End-User will restrict the ability to obtain consumer information to a few key personnel.
5. End-User agrees to place all terminal devices used to obtain consumer information in a secure location within its facility so that unauthorized persons cannot easily access them.
6. End-User agrees it will turn off and lock all devices or systems used to obtain consumer information.
7. End-User will secure hard copies and electronic files of consumer reports within its facility so that unauthorized persons cannot easily access them.
